SCHAEFER WINS FAST
BOUT WITH MALONE

Five Other Events Make a Hit With Manhattan
Club Fans.

Six boxing bouts, in which twenty fast and snappy rounds were fought, were staged at the Garrick theater last night by Manhattan Athletic club boxers. Two of the bouts were stopped in the second round, it being evident that the loser was not in the same class with his opponent. A decision was awarded in each event and the programme, which was easily up to the Manhattan club standard, furnished plenty of interest for the enthusiastic fans.

The main event of the evening, a bout between Mike Malone and Harry Schaefer, respective boxing partners for Gilbert Gallant and "Old Round" Hogan, when these two lightweights fought here two weeks ago, was exciting, but it did not equal the encounter between Malone and Schaefer, which was staged as a preliminary for the Gallant-Hogan bout. Schaefer was victor last night, as he was two weeks ago, but he did not have to work nearly so hard, nor was he forced to, as he did when he finished Malone up two weeks ago.

Schaefer Is Better Man.

It appears from the two appearances here of Malone and Schaefer that Schaefer will always have a slight advantage over Malone. He is perhaps no more clever nor scientific than Malone, but he has slightly the better of it in reach and height. He conserved himself well last night and took and gave with Malone in a commendable manner. There was no doubt but that he earned the decision.

The first event of the evening was both interesting and humorous. Jacob Klopshie, after taking the worst of it from Tim Murphy in the first two rounds, came back in the third and fourth and completely overcame Murphy. Murphy could stay with him no longer. Klopshie easily won the decision. The second bout was between Joe Bishop and Tom Crawford, two lightweights. The boys were new to the Manhattan club fans and they made a favorable impression. Bishop was aggressive and could take a beating, and Crawford was equally as aggressive and fared a little better than Bishop as regards the science of the game. The excellent work of both boys won for them the admiration of the crowd. Crawford was given the decision.

Bouts Go Two Rounds.

"Young" Malone and "Kid" Sparks occupied the boards for the third event. Sparks substituted at the last minute for "Kid" Cuddy, who could not appear because of an injury. Malone was the leader of the attack during the two rounds which the boys fought, and was awarded a decision at the end of the second round when Sparks was no longer able to stand up to him. The fourth bout was fast as far as it went. Mack McAllister turned the tables on Billy Furness and fought Furness to a standstill at the end of the second round.

Both boxers mixed freely and at the end of the first round the honors were even. McAllister has shown steady improvement since he began to box for the Manhattan club several weeks ago.

Fifth Is Whirlwind.

The fifth event, which was between Gutke and Travis, was in many ways the best bout of the evening. After four rounds of the closest fighting seen at the club for a long time Gutke was awarded the bout. Referee Downing's decision was not what could be exactly called popular with the fans, but if he had awarded it any other way he would have met with the same storm of disapproval. It is not the easiest thing in the world to award a boxing decision, especially in an event as close as the Gutke-Travis affair. Gutke had as many backers as Travis, and if the bout had been called a draw then a wall of dissent would have been sent up by Gutke's backers. If being slightly the more aggressive throughout the bout should win a decision for a boxer then Gutke was rightly awarded the decision last night. Travis put up a game fight and full credit should be given him for his performance, but where decisions are preferable it seems only right that Gutke should have been awarded one.

Crowded House Expected
When Grapplers Meet at the Auditorium.

MIKE YOKEL of Salt Lake, champion middleweight wrestler of the world, and George Bothner, a middleweight of New York, will meet in a finish match at the Auditorium tonight. The match is being promoted by Fred Crabbe, George Nelson, the big wrestler of the local fire department, was chosen yesterday by the principals and Promoter Crabbe to referee the match. Bothner, who was formerly champion lightweight wrestler, and who is now an instructor in Brown's gymnasium in New York, and also at Princeton university, arrived in Salt Lake Sunday afternoon. He got his first workout yesterday with Promoter Crabbe at the "San" gymnasium. He looks to be in perfect physical condition and is built splendidly for a wrestler. He said last night that despite the fact that he felt a noticeable difference in the altitude of Salt Lake as compared with the altitude of his home, he was in excellent condition. It is expected he will reveal some real class in the match tonight.

Yokel took his final workout yesterday. He did not exert himself, merely exercising his muscles and conditioning himself generally. He declared he was satisfied with his condition, and that he was practically at the middleweight limit of 158 pounds. Arthur Mackie and George McLeod will begin the programme tonight with a thirty-minute preliminary. Both men are fast and they should put up a speedy exhibition. The seat sale advanced steadily yesterday, and Promoter Crabbe feels assured the house will be well filled tonight. It is prob-

GIBBONS-M'FARLAND
BOUT IS POSTPONED

Date Continued Until First Week in March for Reasons Unknown.

By SAM P. HALL.

CHICAGO, Feb. 2.—The Packey McFarland-Mike Gibbons quarrel, which originally was set for February 12, has been postponed until the first week in March for some mysterious reason. This announcement was made today, and rumors followed to the effect that the match would never be staged. One thing that helped this story along was McFarland's failure to put in an appearance at the Lewis gymnasium for the usual afternoon of training. It was later stated that Packey had a bad headache. He allowed he would be on the road tomorrow morning.

Manager Emil Thiry, although he had not heard from Promoter Billy Gibson in New York was of the opinion tonight that the match was postponed because Gibbons wants to sell about 500 seats at $1.50 to the Chicago fans who go to New York early in March to greet Charles A. Comiskey and party on their return from the world's baseball tour. Packey said it might be that the garden could not be secured for the 12th, and that a postponement was a necessity for that reason.

A scandalous rumor involving a secret meeting between McFarland and Gibbons here in Chicago last Tuesday was started. It was said that Gibbons came here from St. Paul to see Packey, and that they agreed to "go along" in the New York bout just to get the money; that Mike came here at Packey's suggestion, because McFarland refused to box unless it was understood that neither man should seriously try to whale the other; that Gibbons needs the coin, and for that reason consented to refrain from trying for a knockout or to show up his foe in any way.

McFarland and Thiry, when they heard of this, branded it a lie, and no doubt it is. Such a meeting could have been held all right, but it is doubtful if the fellows as smart as Packey and Gibbons would try to get away with anything of that sort in a big match that the public is going to pay nearly $40,000 to see.

Tinker Signs Young Outfielder; Cubs Leave for South Feb. 18.

By International News Service.

CHICAGO, Feb. 2.—Baseball news compared favorably with the weather today. It was decidedly poor, there being no startling announcements forthcoming from any of the local headquarters. At Mr. Murphy's Club offices it was announced that Charles H. Thomas, auditor of the club for many years, would succeed Charley Williams as secretary and treasurer. It was positively announced that the Cubs would leave for their Tampa training camp at 5:15 o'clock on the night of February 18, and it was further announced that Trainer Dr. Fred Hart had not jumped to the Federals. He turned in his signed contract at Cub headquarters during the day. Harry Graham, White Sox catchman at the present time, announced a few dates for exhibition games, and Joe Tinker told us the name of a star young outfielder he had signed.

President Gilmore of the Federals took another trip to Toronto today. Just why Mr. Gilmore takes such frequent trips to the Canadian burg we are still unable to solve. He stated before leaving that Toronto would positively remain in the Federal circuit.

Manager Harris said that he had signed a young outfielder named Cal Cole. Cole is considerable of a bear, especially in the art of posting the pill. He was with the Elmira in the New York state league, all season and finished the season hitting at the fancy average of .357. Besides leading his league in hitting, he led in the number of extra base hits made.

The lad, who is a youngster, finished up with Baltimore in the International league. Frank Owens, who caught for Minneapolis last season, dropped in today to close up with the local Federals. He signed some time ago, but when he signed the new Federal league contracts were not out. He signed one of the new documents and then left for his home in Toronto. Owens was drafted last fall by the Washington club, but he says he was given a better contract by the Federals.

May Hold Joint Meeting.

NEW YORK, Feb. 2.—When the club owners of the National league meet in their city next week for the annual scheduled meeting, it is probable that a joint meeting of the directors of the two organizations will be held.

If such a meeting is held, it will be the first time on record that magnates of the two big leagues have met in joint conference. The activity of the new Federal league is said to be the subject up for discussion in the minds of the club owners.

At a conference in Pittsburgh on Saturday last, in which Governor Tener, Earl Johnson, W. C. Somers, R. L. Hedges, Barney Dreyfus, August Hermann, Connie Mack and others took part, a joint meeting of the majority league magnates was suggested.

Veteran Pitcher Dies.

PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 2.—Samuel "Buck" Weaver, a famous baseball pitcher thirty years ago, died suddenly here today. He was 57 years old.

Weaver began his baseball career in 1872 and terrific speed was his great asset. He played with the organization now the Philadelphia National league team one year and was with Milwaukee for two years.

In 1881 and 1882 he was with the Philadelphia Athletics. The following year Weaver played with Louisville and led all the pitchers in the American association.

Winning.

Entries for the A. A. U. swimming meet to be held at the Sanitarium tomorrow night, will close at 1 o'clock this afternoon. It had been previously planned to close the entries yesterday, but because of the fact that the names of entrants from the Desert gymnasium, the National Guard and the Y. M. C. A. had not been sent in, it was decided to extend the time for closing until this afternoon.

About fifteen entries from the Sanitarium have been received by N. C. Manley, who is promoting the event, and more are expected to enter before 1 o'clock this afternoon. Ralph Schenck, a "San" swimmer, is one of the fastest short distance swimmers in the city, and it is expected he will do much tomorrow night toward bringing the coveted swimming trophy to the Sanitarium.

INSTRUCTOR IN FAVOR OF SUMMER BASEBALL

PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 2.—Declaring that academic standing should be the only standard of eligibility required of candidates for college baseball teams, Dr. Arthur W. Goodspeed, chairman of the faculty committee on athletics of the University of Pennsylvania, today agreed with the captain of the Yale, Harvard, Princeton and Dartmouth nine who have advocated that the college men be permitted to play summer ball. Dr. Goodspeed said he believed it to be only a question of time when the colleges will adopt a universal code that will allow all undergraduates whose academic standing is up to the standard to try for places on the team.

Emilen Hare, chairman of the University of Pennsylvania baseball committee, recently declared himself as favoring "summer baseball."

day Date.

By H. M. WALKER.

LOS ANGELES, Feb. 2.—The dashing bantamweight challenger, me Williams, and Promoter T. Carey, take seriously the proposition Johnnie Coulon that come to the coast and battle the more boxer.

I know Coulon well enough to know he would not break his word and try himself out in two more battles after which he will meet me."

Manager Harris said: "The Coulon means business at Los Angeles. He reached a stage now where he must take on Williams or lose the respect of the public."

McCarey intimated that much of the best holiday dates of the would be tendered the last night Coulon be ready to box by that time.
